RE: Charges

Dear Mr. Watson:

Brother Watson, you are hereby being charged with Section 1, (c) Disloyalty to the Association, (e) Misappropriation; of Association funds, making false reports and (j) such other acts and conduct which shall be considered inconsistent with the duties, obligations and responsibilities of a member, officer or subordinate body of this Association.

These charges are from the Constitution of the Pennsylvania State Corrections Officers Association Appendix B and are the result of an investigation conducted by the accounting firm of Bruce T. Brown, CPA/ABV, CVA. This investigation revealed that you have stolen the funds of the Association when you turned in false reports alleging miles traveled during the course of your business day.

Your rights are explained in Appendix B of the PSCOA Constitution. You are hereby put on notice that a trial board will be convened at a later date concerning these charges, at which time you may present a defense to your conduct if you so choose.

Thank you,

Roy Pinto, President
PSCOA

RE: Expulsion of Association Membership

Dear Mr. Dyches:

On January 5, 2012 specified charges were brought forth against you by President Roy Pinto that found you in violation of the PSCOA Constitution via USPS certified mail. On February 17, 2012 a trial notice was sent to you by Secretary/Treasurer John Chernavage via USPS certified mail. This letter specified what day and time your trial was scheduled for to give you ample opportunity to prepare your defense. You were also notified that the trial would be held without you if you chose not to attend.

On March 22, 2012 at 10:00 a.m. the trial was conducted by the PSCOA Judicial/Ethics Committee, Trial Board in lieu of your absence. The Trial Board unanimously decided that you are found guilty of the following violations of the PSCOA Constitution:

Appendix B, Charges, Trials and Appeals of the PSCOA Constitution Section 1:

(c) Disloyalty to the Association;

(e) Misappropriation; of Association funds; making false official reports;

(j) Such other acts and conduct which shall be considered inconsistent with the duties, obligations and responsibilities of a member, officer or subordinate body of this Association.

Due to the serious nature of the offenses the following penalties have been imposed, outright expulsion from the Association and a fine of $79,860. Circumstances of continued misappropriation of Association funds and the ongoing filing of false reports over the time period warrants the heavy fines.

A letter was sent to the Office of Administration to change your payroll status from a full dues member to a fair share payee effective immediately.

Thank you,

RE: Trial Date Notice

Dear Mr. Dyches:

You are hereby being charged with Section 1, (c) Disloyalty to the Association, (e) Misappropriation; of Association funds, making false reports and (j) such other acts and conduct which shall be considered inconsistent with the duties, obligations and responsibilities of a member, officer or subordinate body of this Association. These charges are derived from an independent forensic audit addressing fraudulent mileage vouchers submitted to the association.

These charges are from the Constitution of the Pennsylvania State Corrections Officers Association Appendix B and are the result of an investigation conducted by the accounting firm of Bruce J. Brown, CPA/ABV, CFF, CVA. This investigation revealed that you misappropriated the funds of the Association when you turned in false reports alleging miles traveled during the course of your business day.

Your rights are explained in Appendix B of the PSCOA Constitution. Your trial has been set for March 22, 2012 at 10:00am, should you wish to attend. The trial will be held at 2421 N. Front St., Harrisburg, PA 17110. If you choose not to attend the trial will be held without you.

Thank you,

John Chernavage

RE: Trial Date Notice

Dear Mr. Hood:

You are hereby being charged with Section 1, (c) Disloyalty to the Association, (e) Misappropriation; of Association funds, making false reports and (j) such other acts and conduct which shall be considered inconsistent with the duties, obligations and responsibilities of a member, officer or subordinate body of this Association. These charges are derived from an independent forensic audit addressing fraudulent mileage vouchers submitted to the association.

These charges are from the Constitution of the Pennsylvania State Corrections Officers Association Appendix B and are the result of an investigation conducted by the accounting firm of Bruce J. Brown, CPA/ABV, CFF, CVA. This investigation revealed that you misappropriated the funds of the Association when you turned in false reports alleging miles traveled during the course of your business day.

Your rights are explained in Appendix B of the PSCOA Constitution. Your trial has been set for March 22, 2012 at 12:00pm, should you wish to attend. The trial will be held at 2421 N. Front St., Harrisburg, PA 17110. If you choose not to attend the trial will be held without you.

Thank you,

John Chernavage
Secretary/Treasurer, PSCOA
